

SOCIETY

Miss Eleanor Wheeler will give a bridge party Saturday afternoon complimentary to Miss Mary Moore, whose marriage to Mr. Roland Perkins will take place August 26.

Miss Dorothy Scott, Miss Gladys Scott, Miss Louise McGoff, Miss Lillian McGoff and Miss Helen Mitchell will leave tonight for Denver, Colo., to attend the convocation of the Lambda Alpha Lambda sorority at the Hotel Hamilton in Topeka, who is spending the summer in Colorado Springs, will go to Denver to attend the convention.

This jaunty little suit of grey blue serge has a high waisted little coat with slashed skirt and the waist line marked by a smart little black patent leather belt. The revers are of soft silk in the shade of the gown and with this are worn collar and turn back cuffs of lace edged batiste. The skirt is slashed at the side corresponding to the coat and the plain material which shows between is crossed by a band thine. The girl in question has a particularly dreamy "mío y tuyo" expression when she looks at the ring on the third finger of her left hand.

One of the daintiest and most becoming lingerie hats yet seen appears

In the drawing which is shown today, the frame, which is on the mob cap style, has the crown covered by a full crown of lace and the brim with two narrow ruffles of fine lace finely pleated. Directly in the front are two deep fan-like folds of this pleated lace. A wreath of thin pink roses marks the joining of brim and crown and terminates on the right of the front in a cluster of these flowers and their foliage.

A party of the suburban girls of the high school, chartered by Miss Julia Larimer and Miss Mary Wilson, left Monday for Wakarusa to camp until Saturday. The girls of the party are: Miss Esther Kleinhaus, Miss Ruth Foster, Miss Alena Chubb, Miss Ruth Koester, Miss Lucile Lukens, Miss Mildred Leeper, Miss Ruth Bomgardner, Miss Laura Koehler, Miss Hattie Shirley, Miss Blanche Shirley, Miss Dorothy Kingsley.

The Pi Sigma Pi girls will give a 6 o'clock dinner today at the home of Miss Mary Summers, in honor of Miss Mildred Carter, who will leave Thursday for an extended visit to relatives in Chicago. Covers will be laid for: Miss Carter, Miss Summers, Miss Anna Ballay, Miss Jennie Hoinman, Miss Helen Dwinell, Miss Mary Southwick, Miss Lillian Davies and Miss Nettie Estep.

Mrs. George Drake of Fort Worth, Texas, and Mrs. William Lulehan of Effingham, Kansas, are spending the week with Mrs. Paul Husky. Mrs. Husky entertained at cards this afternoon in their honor, the other guests being a party of ladies from St. Mary's.

Miss Mary Robertson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Robertson, and Mr. Willis H. Snyder of Pocatello, Idaho, were married Monday evening at 8:30 o'clock by Dr. C. A. Finch, at the home of the bride's parents, 615 Tyler street. Miss Anna Harmonson sang "O Promise Me" before the ceremony, and "I Love You Truly" after the ceremony. Miss Ruth Crittenden played the Mendelssohn wedding march, and Helen Finch carried the ring in a lily. The bride is a graduate of the Topeka high school, and has taught in the public schools. Mr. Snyder is manager of a mercantile company in Pocatello, and he and his bride will make their home there.

Ideal Ideas on Eatables
A SEMI-WEEKLY PUBLICATION OF SUGGESTIONS TO THE HOUSEWIFE
Published Every Tuesday and Friday in The State Journal From The Ideal Bakery, 121 West Sixth Street, Topeka, Kan.

VOL. 2 August 8 No. 63.

LADY FINGERS EVER SO DAINTY AND LIGHT.

Not like the ordinary, unshapely scorched kind, one sees so often in the ordinary bakery shop, but a dainty also, delicately light and fresh. Our lady fingers are baked with great care and each is individually moulded. Plenty of powdered sugar sprinkled on after baking adds to their richness. As a pastry to serve with ice cream or ices they are superb. Try them and see how "different" they are. The price is 10c per dozen.

WHOLESALE COTTAGE CHEESE 10c PER PINT.

Get a pint or a quart of this appetizing, freshly made, cottage cheese and put it in your ice box. When it gets good and cold, spread some sandwiches with it, using some of our rich rye or whole wheat bread. Serve with olives, pickles and salad of some kind and you will have a most appetizing lunch.

This combination is merely a suggestion of the possibilities of our delicatessen department. Other relatives you'll find here are Boston baked beans, mayonnaise potato salad, chicken salad, spaghetti, macaroni and cheese, rice and tapioca pudding, cream mashed potatoes, crisp potato chips, sliced cucumbers with mayonnaise, etc. From the big variety of good prepared eatables to be found here you can select a most appetizing lunch or meal for almost any occasion.

CHOICE MEATS AND CHICKEN FRESHLY COOKED.

This is another department of our shop that offers splendid suggestions for "different" things to eat. You will find it easy to keep the table variety fresh, by often buying such choice meats as young roast chicken with dressing, fried chicken, cold tongue, baked ham, roast beef, cold pork, etc., cooked our way. The prices are all moderate and you'll find the meats cooked superbly and always fresh.

FIG SLICES.

Here's a new idea in pastry making. Fig slices have a most rare and delightful flavor.

The slice itself is a crisp spice dough. Down the center of each slice is a layer of fresh fancy figs. When baked crisp and brown these ingredients blend into a flavor that is more than delicious. They sell at 10c a dozen.

COLD SLAW WITH MAYONNAISE DRESSING.

This is a brand new feature in the delicatessen department—one we failed to mention above.

We make it from the choicest leaves of specially selected fresh cabbage, sliced by machine. The mayonnaise dressing adds a delightful touch of seasoning, making it an especially appetizing summer dish. The price is 10c per pint.

THIN LEMON WAFERS.

A dainty thin wafer, baked brown and crisp with a dash of lemon flavor. It is also have them with nuts mixed in. Both are especially dainty for serving with ices and ice cream. They are exceedingly light. The price is 20c per lb.

NOTICE HOW SMOOTHLY WESTON BREAD SLICES.

When you slice the next loaf of Weston bread, notice how smoothly the knife cuts through and how gently the moist, fine textured slice bends over and falls. This proves that the quality of texture and baking is right. That the quality of materials, mixing, raising, cooling are right, necessarily follows.

Ordinary bakers bread is often dry, and coarse, crumbling when sliced. Weston bread is rich, creamy, fine grained and moist, yet light and wholesome from crust to center.

Just make the experiment of slicing Weston and other bread at the same time. That's the best way to learn of the real difference in the quality of texture. Taste will prove its superiority flavor and foodness.

EVENING CHAT BY RUTH CAMERON.

How do you lie when you sleep? And can you lie in more than one position and be comfortable?

An impertinent question? I'll admit it does sound so, but I'll tell you why I ask it.

I have just been forcibly impressed with the danger of forming too rigid a habit in this respect.

A friend of mine was operated upon for appendicitis. The operation was eminently successful, but my friend had a pretty serious time of it simply because he had to lie on his back on account of the incision.

He invariably slept on his side all his life he could not get to sleep in the new position.

A young business woman contributes a less serious but none the less unpleasant experience. She sprained her right shoulder and, having a rigid habit of always sleeping on that side, laid several nights' sleep and was actually incapacitated for work because she had to lie on her back.

There has been much said in medical circles from time to time about the proper position in which to sleep. Some doctors advocate sleeping on the back; others on the side.

A prominent physician says that the normal position in which to sleep is on the stomach and that you will notice that a healthy child invariably sleeps on his stomach.

The left side, he believes, has no advantage at all, as lying on that side brings too great a pressure on the heart.

Of course, I don't know anything about all this, but one thing I do know and that is that if you will train yourself to be able to sleep in more than one position, and especially to be able to sleep on the back if necessary, you will be avoiding many sleepless and uncomfortable nights.

We have heard much talk about the danger of protruding the subject and the fact, in fact, that I fancy we are rather weary of the subject and inclined to think the danger is overrated. But here is one more word on the matter which has galvanized me into writing, at least, into a new realization of the possible danger and a resolution not to be at fault in this respect.

"I would ask you," writes my correspondent, "to sound a note of warning to the woman wearing long hair in small hats. A most deplorable accident occurred to a young lady on the very eve of her graduation from Normal school, caused by the thoughtlessness of another of the graduates in wearing a long hairpin in a small hat with point protruding two or three inches.

"The young lady in question was struck in the eye and may probably lose sight of it. That's the best way to learn of the real difference in the quality of texture. Taste will prove its superiority flavor and foodness.

Washers Draw the Line on Those of Chicago Building.

Chicago, Aug. 8.—The custodian of the big federal building in Chicago wants a window washer. No fewer than fifteen "expert window washers" have qualified for the job within the last year and the windows haven't been washed yet. A 130 pound man took the job yesterday, but after climbing some three hundred feet up into the dome of the building, he came down.

"I lied to you, boss," he said. "I told you I had washed windows everywhere, but believe me I ain't washed on the sky, and I ain't a'going to. I've got a wife and eight children and I value my life. So I resign."
